Solo and Ensemble
Mississippi State University
Department of Music
P.O. Box 6240
Mississippi State, MS 39762

- Who may participate? Students in grades 8 through 12 and community college students.
- Repertoire? Solos and ensembles selected from our 2023 MSU-Hinds Solo and Ensemble Festival Recommended Repertoire List or solos and ensembles of your choice. Perhaps selected from one of the state lists provided (See the accompanying document).
- Live Solos: Students performing solos live in person must perform one of the solos from our recommended repertoire list, as we will provide a collaborative pianist to perform with for those solos listed. Or students may perform any solo they wish if they perform with a collaborative pianist they have made arrangements with.
- Virtual Solos: Students performing solos and ensembles virtually may perform any published solo that they wish to perform. We ask that students performing solos provide a link to the music and record with a pianist or use a backing track, however, if a student does not have access to a pianist or a backing track, performing without piano is permissible. We encourage the use of live backing track accompaniment, many of which are available on YouTube for free.
- Please provide a link to or copies of the score or part(s) to your piece. Most backing tracks provide these with the online piano part, so that would suffice as well. Please be sure that you send the link to the solo part or piano accompaniment when you send your recording.
- Performances will be adjudicated by panel of judges who will provide written feedback on the performance.
- Only students performing live in person will receive medals for their performances.
- Medals and comments will be handed to those performing live. Comments will be emailed to the virtual participants after the competition adjudication has finished.
- Instruments included: violin, viola, cello, string bass, flute, oboe, clarinet, bassoon, bass clarinet, alto saxophone, tenor saxophone, French horn, trumpet, baritone/euphonium, trombone, tuba, piano, guitar, and percussion.

Please Note: Pianists who wish to enter the festival to receive feedback on their skills as collaborative pianists may play the piano part to one or two movements of the J.S. Bach Sonata for Flute and Keyboard BWV 1031, available from www.IMSLP.org; we will supply the soloist. Piano collaborators bringing their own soloist may perform a piece of their choice but must provide a score for the judges.

Please check here if you want to register as a collaborative pianist only ____.
